

Chapter 1 Further Reading: Introduction

- Duff, Answering for Crime (2007)
- Edwards and Simester, 'What's Public about Crime?' (2017) 37(1) OJLS 105
- Duff and Marshall, 'Crimes, Public Wrongs, and Civil Order' (2019) 13 CrimL&P 27
- Husak, Overcriminalisation (2008)
- Hörnle, 'Theories of Criminalization' (2016) 10 Crim L & Phil 301
- Dennis, 'Reverse Onuses and the Presumption of Innocence' [2005] Crim LR 901
- Chalmers and Leverick, 'Tracking the Creation of Criminal Offences' [2013] Crim LR 543
- Spencer, 'The Drafting of Criminal Legislation, Need It Be So Impenetrable?' (2008) 67 CLJ 585
- Elvin and De Than, 'Private prosecution: a useful constitutional safeguard or potentially dangerous historical anomaly?' [2019] Crim LR 656
- Law Commission, Unfitness to Plead. Vol 1: Report (No 364, 2016)
- Law Commission, The Sentencing Code – Volume I: Report; Volume II: Draft Legislation (No 382, 2018)
- Harris and Roberts, 'Sentencing in Transition: Recent Developments' [2020] Crim LR 369
-
- King and Lord, Negotiated Justice and Corporate Crime (2018)
- Laird, 'Deferred prosecution agreements and the interests of justice: a consistency of approach?' [2019] Crim LR 486
- Lööf, 'Corporate agency and white collar crime - an experience-led case for causation-based corporate liability for criminal harms' [2020] Crim LR 275
- Keating, 'How Should the Criminal Law Respond to the "Special Status of Children?"' in Child and Duff (eds), Criminal Law Reform Now (2018) 165; response from Yafee, 184.